Anthony Brown Opens Campaign Headquarters in Largo

Over 100 supporters and volunteers join Team Brown in strong show of grassroots support

LARGO, Md. – Joined by over 100 supporters and volunteers, Lt. Governor Anthony G. Brown, candidate for Congress in Maryland's Fourth District, hosted a grand opening party for his new campaign headquarters on Saturday. The office is fully staffed and will serve as a focal point for grassroots efforts during the campaign.

Brown's campaign has built a strong grassroots presence throughout the district, knocking on more than 2,500 doors and recruiting hundreds of volunteers. The clear frontrunner in the race with double the support of the second place candidate, Brown has continued to gain momentum. In last month's Federal Election Commission filings, Brown led the field in fundraising and was the only candidate to raise more in the third quarter than the second.

"I'm grateful for the outpouring of support that has continued to come in for this campaign," said Lt. Governor Anthony G. Brown. "I'm confident that we will continue building on this momentum and I look forward to working on behalf of the residents of the Fourth District to ensure equality, fairness, and that no one gets left behind."
